

Teaching the Values of Being Human

Quick start connections – building trusting relationships

STUDENT FEEDBACK SURVEY: an update

Please find a few minutes to complete this feedback survey with your mother, father or caregiver.

Your responses will help us to understand how you're feeling and how we might be able to improve things for you because our goal is for school to be a happy place where you can learn and grow.

Student's Name: _____

Why do you come to school? _____

Are you happy coming to school? _____

Which classes or lessons do you feel most successful in? _____

Which classes or lessons are you happiest in? _____

Which teachers do you enjoy? Why? _____

Which classes or lessons are most challenging? Why? _____

Which classes or lessons worry or stress you? How could we help? _____

Do you feel you're able to listen, participate and learn in lessons? How could we improve this? _____

Teaching the Values of Being Human

Quick start connections – building trusting relationships

STUDENT FEEDBACK SURVEY: an update (continued)

Please find a few minutes to complete this feedback survey with your mother, father or caregiver.

Your responses will help us to understand how you're feeling and how we might be able to improve things for you because our goal is for school to be a happy place where you can learn and grow.

Do you have any relationship difficulties with teachers? _____

Please provide as much information as you can so we can improve your experience _____

Do you have good friends at school? _____

What do you usually do at break times? _____

Do you feel safe at school? _____

Are there people that scare or worry you? _____

Who have you spoken to about this? _____

List a few things you've enjoyed over the last term. _____

List some of the things you've not enjoyed! _____

Teaching the Values of Being Human

Quick start connections – building trusting relationships

STUDENT FEEDBACK SURVEY: an update (continued)

Please find a few minutes to complete this feedback survey with your mother, father or caregiver.

Your responses will help us to understand how you're feeling and how we might be able to improve things for you because our goal is for school to be a happy place where you can learn and grow.

We would like to tap into your strengths and interests. What are they?

What do you dream of doing later, once you leave school? _____

How can we help you to achieve this? _____

What else could we do to improve your experience at school? _____

